We Remember

At 10:00 this morning people across the country will be observing the “National Moment of Remembrance” marking the 10th anniversary of September 11, 2001. Please remain in meditation during the one minute ringing of our toll bell and as other church bells and sirens ring out, we honor those lost in the attacks. And we remember.

Welcome again this morning
 Pastor Larry Ballenger

Pastor Don and Shari McCullough are enjoying their vacation this month. Last Sunday we were pleased to have our friend Larry Ballenger back with us. We welcome him again this morning and will hear of some of his and Judy's experiences during the semester they spent in Lithuania early this year.

FLORAL ARRANGEMENTS NEEDED

Evelyn is keeping a calendar in the office. If you would like a monthly turn providing flowers, either in making arrangements or calling a florist to send flowers honoring a person or commemorating an event, please call her so we do not have over-lapping plans. 937-5441

Thank you! We encourage you to help add to the beauty of our sanctuary on Sundays for our worship service.

WE ARE ONE IN GOD'S SPIRIT!

It is not too late to join the study group on Christian Spirituality. Everyone is welcome.

God's aim is for all His children to have fellowship with Him and enjoy Him forever. Christian spirituality is a way for us to learn and practice how we can have this fellowship with god – to experience God, not just learn about Him.

The name of the first book being used is:

Thirsty for God, A Brief History of Christian Spirituality by Bradley P. Holt.

We will meet on Wednesdays at 3:00 in
NEW LOCATION ~ Library or Preston Hall

Call Rob Scott for this or for other information at 964-7433.
