OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD ~

Have you started packing a plastic shoe box yet for a boy or girl?

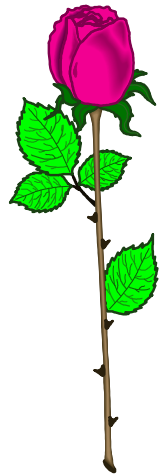

Suggested Items: small toys: cars, balls dolls yo-yos etc. Toothbrushes, mild soap, combs etc. T-shirts, socks, caps, flashlights etc. You may enclose a short personal note.

Please Do Not include: toy guns, knives, chocolate or food, liquids or lotions, medications or vitamins, breakable items or aerosol cans. Also need $7 donation to cover postage.

Envelopes to use for inclosing your $7 are on the table in the back of the church. These also have suggestions of what to include when you go shopping and "Boy" and "Girl" labels.

Call the church office for more information: 937-5441

Collection of boxes will be November 13, 2011

Ted Johnson is doing much better!
If you would like to send him a card, he would love to hear from you.

Last week we learned of the passing of John Wolff.
Cards may be sent to his daughter:

Rosemary and John Niukkanen

We are so grateful for everyone who has bought donations of food items to the Tuesday Breakfast or to the Tuesday Deacons' Outreach program. Thank you very much!
Our problem at the moment is that the kitchen in Eidsath House is tiny, and extra pots and pans, baskets and plates have been over flowing, even into the choir room!

Patricia has now moved the excess items over to Preston Hall where they will be on display. If you see anything that belongs to you, please take it home. In a couple weeks everything that has not been claimed will go to the thrift shop.

Thank you to:

*who ever the angel is who rejuvenated the shower in
Eidsath House and brought a new shower curtain!
~ Thank you!
(It looks like new!)*
