There are hymnals in Preston Hall that need a home....if you’d like one or know someone who would, please feel free to pick one up after the service today.

A fraudulent imitation of what is real. When we hear about fake imitations about the money in our wallet, or priceless pieces of art, or valuable original documents, or even famous people—we become indignant and view anything that is counterfeit as unethical, immoral, illegal. When we have been given a hundred dollar bill and we find out that it’s fake, we are really ticked off! Counterfeit! Saying it leaves a bit of a sleazy feel on the tongue. Fake, phony, pseudo, forged, hypocritical. Nasty synonyms.

We want the real thing in our lives, right? the REAL deal?

So why doesn’t this desire for authenticity carry over in our relationship with God? We say we believe in Him, but is He really God in our lives?
