Donations for Rainbow scholarships welcome any time of year! Don’t forget Marion Bush’s non-seasonal blank greeting cards featuring her paintings of Mendocino. . .three of the set of six include images of Mendocino Presbyterian. There are still 15 packs available in the office during the week for a donation of $12; any remaining sets will be sold at the craft faire. Marion is giving 100% of proceeds to scholarships.

Every man is guilty of all the good he didn't do. - Voltaire, philosopher (1694-1778)

Many years ago, Nancy Swehla created crocheted lap blankets for those in the sanctuary who may feel a chill in the air. Carrying on this tradition of warmth and beauty, we have several brand new quilted lap quilts in the back of the sanctuary, donated by some beautiful, talented women (who choose to remain anonymous). As the weather gets cooler, feel free to use one of these as you worship.
