The dedicated members of the MPC Pastor Nominating Committee have worked diligently and prayerfully for over a year to seek a new pastor for our church family. They invite you to join them for a Potluck in Preston Hall at 5 pm this Saturday, April 11th, to welcome our pastoral candidate. Please take this opportunity to meet Matt and his wife Jennifer and children Hudson and Drew. Then come hear the Pastoral Candidate on Sunday morning, April 12th, 10 am at the Worship Service. Please be present to vote as a congregation.

All things Techie . . . get help, get connected!

Need computer help?

Due to the special events of next Sunday, NormaLee’s 2nd Sunday Computer Class will be held next week, 4/19, in the Alma Mendosa choir room, Eidsath House. Email your questions ahead of time if you can: nandres@mcn.org

New wifi link: The MPC wifi signal is due for an upgrade. Those that have their computers and phones connecting automatically to “dlink” at the church may need to reset/re-search in their settings for wifi connection to obtain a signal. The name of the signal has not been established yet, but it will be some variation of “mendopres.”

✠ The Tuesday morning Women’s Bible Study group resumes April 14th - Pat Westfall, 937-5570.

✠ It might seem an odd time to be thinking of Christmas at Easter, but Debbie Anderson who coordinates our annual participation in “Operation Christmas Child” shares this recent report about the gift shoeboxes collected in 2014 . . . More than 10.4 Million gift-filled boxes were gathered with 15,338 of these collected in the North Bay. Even as you are reading this note, these shoeboxes are being delivered all over the world with the Good News of Jesus Christ.

✠ Mendocino Coast Hospice is seeking compassionate, caring people who are interested in working with terminally ill patients and their families. 2015 Hospice Volunteer Training is April 15 to May 27, classes 1-4 pm in Fort Bragg. Contact Terry Ebrey, RN, 961-4617, tebrey@mchomehealth.org.
