This month's Moment for Mission is on behalf of The Voice of the Martyrs, an organization formed by a Lutheran minister, Rev. Richard Wurmbbrand, who was imprisoned in Communist Romania in the 1960's, and then exiled. The organization is headquartered in Bartlesville,

Oklahoma. Representatives speaking today are Reverend Rick and Mrs. Sue Hahn. Rev. Hahn grew up in Hawaii and was raised in a military family residing on U.S. Air Force bases throughout the United States and the World. In 1966 he graduated from San José Bible College. Since then, Rick and his wife, Sue, have served in the mission field in Hawaii and the West Coast until retirement in 2010. For the past two years the Hahn's have been representing The Voice of the Martyrs here in Northern California.

Calling all knitters: The ladies of the Mendocino Study Club need your help. Knitted items are in short supply for Country Christmas, Nov. 23rd, Preston Hall. Your assistance to produce hats, scarves and other knitwear will result in scholarship funds which go to local students. Our own Jean Droz was a generous contributor for many years; her absence is strongly felt in so many ways including her donations to the Study Club. If you are willing to help, contact Jane Person, jane@person.com or 964 6351 – yarn will be provided (a member of the club is willing to pay a small stipend to knitters).

Ask, Seek, Knock - please share your prayers of supplication and thanksgiving.
