A note from In The Mix, members--Terry Anne, Cathy Boxell, Darcie Mahoney, Kathy O'Shea, Nancy Severy and Carolyn Steinbuck: In the Mix is a women's a cappella sextet performing popular songs in close harmony from every decade from the 1920's to the present. Our group was formed in 2009 as an offshoot of Gloriana Carolers. Some of the carolers had so much fun singing together, they didn't want to stop. These carolers brought in a few friends, who brought in a few more friends, and In the Mix settled into a group of women who blend well vocally and personally. We are excited to join you today.

Thanks to the sweet devotion of a dedicated church mouse, lots of sorting and cleaning has been going on behind the scenes in the offices of Eidsath House. A variety of interesting resource material ranging from single-page articles to books to hymnals to audio/visual items has been unearthed. These treasures have been moved to Preston Hall (Dr. Preston's piano top). We invite you to make use of any of the items ... keep them or pass them along to others.

Get Arts in the Schools! Arts Council of Mendocino County's Get Arts in the Schools Program (GASP) is connecting artists and teachers. If you have experience teaching or presenting art and would like to be paid for doing art with children, please consider applying at www.artsmendocino.org, by October 2.

Healthy weight management - Petra Schulte will be teaching a free class at Safe Passage in Fort Bragg Wednesdays, 10 am-12 pm, Oct. 21 to Dec. 16. Sign up: Safe Passage, 964-3077, or Petra at 937-4704.

Ask, Seek, Knock - please share your prayers of supplication and thanksgiving.

- ✚ Continued prayers for all those affected by the Valley Fire.
- ✚ Gratitude that John Turnbull and the disaster relief team have returned safely from Nepal.
- ✚ Prayers for discernment as we call new officers into the life of the church.
- ✚ Praises for the start of a new youth group.
